

“Red Cells in Perspective”

For Hospital and Community Doctors and Nurses, Biomedical Scientists and Haemovigilance Practitioners

Friday 9 February 2018 (09.30am – 4.30pm)
Riddel Hall, Queens University
Stranmillis Road, Belfast

PRESENTATIONS will include:

Anaemia in the elderly
Update on the management of perioperative anaemia
Intravenous iron – efficacy and safety
Management of anaemia in patients with cancer
Update on red cell transfusion triggers
Management of patients with gastrointestinal bleeding
Reducing iatrogenic blood loss for laboratory tests
Red cell use in Northern Ireland – how can we improve clinical practice?
TACO – reducing the risk of occurrence
Fluid Management for the critically ill patient

SPEAKERS will include:

Dr Ravi Raobaikady Ravishankar, Cons. Anaesthetist, Royal Marsden, London
Alan Wilson, Senior Pharmacist, BHSC
Dr Simon Stanworth, Cons. Haematologist, NHSBT & Oxford University Hospitals Trust
Dr Paula Bolton-Maggs, Cons. Haematologist, NHSBT, Medical Director of SHOT
Dr Simon Johnston, Cons. Gastroenterologist, BHSC
Dr Damien Carson, Cons. Anaesthetist, SEHSCT
Dr Jon Silversides, Cons. Anaesthetist, BHSC
Aine McCartney, Haemovigilance Manager, BHSC

POSTERS on transfusion practice - local audits and quality improvement projects

Please contact Dr Susan Atkinson by email susan.atkinson@belfasttrust.hscni.net before Friday 26 January 2018, if you would like to submit a poster for presentation.

CPD applied for

If you would like to attend, please register on:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/ni-transfusion-committee-2018-spring-scientific-meeting-registration-36467011814?aff=es2>

Early registration advisable - £50 until 9 Jan.2018, £60 thereafter